

Emergency Shelter

The YWCA Saskatoon Crisis Shelter offers short-term emergency housing and support for all women and children who are in need of a safe place to stay for up to 30 days.

We have staff available 24 hours a day 7 days a week.

We are inclusive and accepting, and give our clients much more than just a warm bed for the night.

Our shelter welcomes clients who have experienced sexual assault, domestic abuse, homelessness, addiction, or mental health issues.

For emergency shelter for women & children, call (306) 244-2844.

All calls are confidential. There is no cost to stay in the YWCA Crisis Shelter.

When women and families in our community face violence, poverty, or hardships, YWCA Saskatoon provides emergency shelter.

Our trained and dedicated staff members are committed to helping all clients who come to us in time of crisis.

We provide:

- Housing for up to 30 days
- Safety and security
- Confidential crisis counselling
- Basic food and personal items
- Assistance with conflict resolution
- Connections to legal resources and educational supports
- Referrals to medical professionals if required
- Advocacy on behalf of the woman and/or child

If you are in need of emergency shelter, please contact us at (306) 244-2844.
